Hello Friends and Family ~ it's KURT

It's that time of year again! I am working hard to prepare for my upcoming basketball season. After taking a year off last year for my back to heal, I didn't know if I could play again, but so far I feel good and am really enjoying playing again! This season I will play on the JV team with many of my close friends. I can't wait! I was hoping you might want to "Adopt" me this year, by sponsoring me for the season. The donation really helps out with the expenses of the season like uniforms, tournaments, team bags and stuff like that.

I have included the Adopt a Player form and my schedule for this season. I really hope you can come to one of my games!

Thanks,
KURT #25
